20th Sept. 1960.

Central Intelligence Agency.

The Director,

Dear Sir,

May I compliment your Dept , for the wonderful work done in the defence of the free world, I am not just an anti-Communist I'm a Communist hater for all it stands for, I think that Mr."K" is displaying a "prize Pig " piece of Pig manners for attempting to enter the U.S.A under the excuse of UN. after the insulting exhibition he displayed towards your wonderful champion of World Freedom The President of U.S.A.. and I think the World shares my opinion.

You may wonder why I have written to you it is because I feel it may be the best way for the enclosed opinion to be passed on to Mr."K" of Russia. without approaching him or writing direct without a stock whip even that could not produce what is'tnt there " Good Manners". and honesty of purpose.

God Bless the U.S.A. in their World leadership for World Freedom and may your Service penetrate the "Iran Curtain " at grater depth and at more frequent intervals.

Yours Sincerely,

Ex R . A . A . F.

PS. I know how Mr "K" must hate your Department and anything he hates is good enough for me to associate myself with, please let him know how a good Australian feels and I will be indebted for all time, in conclusion " Riot in Japan" let him come to Aussie and we give him ataste of " Riot in Australia"
